REPRESENTATIVE NORTON AUTHOR OF IMPORT- ANT BILL.

BILL WOULD EXEMPT EX-SERVICE EDUCATORS FROM FURTHER EXAMINATIONS.

Representative Norton of this county and Representatives McDonald are authors of a bill now pending in the House which exempts from further examination, all teachers who held certificates of qualification while they were serving in the army or navy of the United States as of any of the Allied powers during the war. The proposed act reads as follows:

"Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, That all certificates issued by the State Department of Education under the provisions of chapter 40, public acts of 1913, and the acts amendatory thereof, to teachers who have served in army or navy of the United States, or with any of the powers associated with the United States, during the World War, be and the same are hereby renewed.

"Section 2. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the state superintendent of public instruction upon presentation of a certificate described in this act, accompanied with an honorable discharge or release from the army or navy, to issue to the holder thereof a permanent state certificate of same grade as was held by him or her at time of entering military service."

Body of W. D. Young Found Near Rome.

The body of W. D. Young, who drowned in the Cumberland river by falling from a gasoline boat at the Carthage warf on the evening of March 3rd, was discovered yesterday (Wednesday) a short distance below Rome, which is about 15 miles below Carthage by water. The body, which was discovered by Frank Presley, was hanging in a drift against Rome island.

Presley immediately reported the discovery and the body, which was considerably decomposed was brought to Rome and examined by a jury of inquest. It was very easy to identify the body as being that of Mr. Young both on the account of the clothing that he was known to be wearing at the time he was drowned and a ring on his left hand bearing his initials. Another identification was the watch worn by Mr. Young. The hour he drowned was near 7 o'clock and his watch stopped at 2 o'clock. It is the opinion of old river men that his body must have risen Tuesday night near Carthage and floated to the scene of the discovery, while others claim that as the body was floating quite high when found that it must have been floating some days.—Carthage Courier.

Mr. Young was about 35 years of age at the time of his death and was rated as one of the best and most successful young business men of the upper part of the county. He was a member of the Baptist church at Carthage and had removed to Watertown to make his home with his charming family only two weeks

LEAVING IT TO HIM.

"I'm afraid your husband is beyond help," said the doctor to the wife. "I can give no hope."

"Here you," came a voice from the bed. "I haven't snuffed out yet."

"Keep quiet, dearie," answered the wife. "Leave it to the doctor; he knows best."

Everything In Readness For School Meet.

We are rapidly approaching the time of our School Meet and all the schools are preparing contestants with great enthusiasm, which insures that the occasion will be a success. All are anxious to win and are putting forth every effort to that end.

Our first idea in regard to defraying the necessary expenses that would accrue, was to charge an admission fee of twenty-five cents for each program till we got the amount necessary to cover these expenses, and then throw the doors open to the public and make it free to all.

Since that time, upon the advice of some of the patrons, we decided that instead of making the fee twenty-five cents we will only have an admission of ten cents for each program, or will sell an entire ticket good for all the entertainment for forty cents. We feel that the people would be satisfied with nothing less than this small charge and we are always willing to please our patrons and friends. This ought to be enough to meet our expenses and will make the burden light on all and at the same time make possible this occasion. Let's everybody come and lend your support to the school that you are interested in and make this event beneficial to all.

Alderman Bailey Heads Street Cleaning Squad.

The Sentinel tips its hat to Alderman M. P. Bailey, for the move he has taken in cleaning up the streets. He began work Monday with a half dozen men, and by noon the public square and several streets had been cleaned of all rock, rubbish and eye-sores, and the town is cleaner in this respect, than it has been for many years. The courthouse yard has also been given a good raking, and the sheriff has notified the officials at the courthouse not to throw papers and ashes on the yard.

Sheriff Spurlock, also deserves mention for the improvement he is making on the jail property. He is making a big fill below the jail which will add much to the appearance of that street as well as the town.

We congratulate these gentlemen on the way they have handled the jobs.

GIVE YOUR CHILDREN THE COUNTY PAPER

Good schools, good churches and good roads are a grand thing to have in a community. In order to have these things people must be educated to take pride in all of these. Your home paper can and will do more to encourage all these things than any other agency. The school children read with pleasure the home happenings, and as they grow up become interested and make useful citizens. Give the children the home paper. It costs but a trifle.

An itinerant preacher, who rambled in his sermons, when requested to stick to his text, replied "that a scattering shot would hit most birds."

Keeping a Budget Will Help You Save Money.

Do you want to make ends meet? Then read this:

The personal and household budgets distributed by the War Loan Organization have been a great help to thousands of individuals and families in keeping their expenses within reasonable limits.

These budgets are arranged to suit incomes from $900 to $5,000. They have a convenient arrangement by which the item of expense automatically fell into an appropriate column, such as these: Money coming in, Saving in War saving Stamps or Bank Deposits, expenditures for food; clothing; rent or upkeep of the house; lights and heat; recreation; church and charities; insurance; interest and taxes; miscellaneous, including literature and education, servants hire, etc. These printed records have a place for each item every day in the month and a record sheet for every month in the year. At the end of the month all you have to do is to add up the columns and you know how much you spent for each item.

Recently an Atlantic business man, who kept one of these personal budgets, went to give his income tax and took the record sheet with him. He found that he had exactly the information required by Government and in ten minutes his income tax report had been made out and approved.

This gentleman, in speaking of the effect of this budget method of saving, said:

"At the end of any day, week or month I can tell you whether any of our expenses are running above the average by comparing them with the same expenses for the previous month or week."

"My wife and I look at these totals and ask how the difference came about. We see how the money went and the automatic showing up the expenses gives us a convenient check on the outgo."

"We not only know how our expenses are running, but exactly what the money went for and if we spend more than usual we can tell whether it was wisely spent or if some of it could have been saved."

"This keeps expenses within reasonable limits."

Jackson--Gore.

The marriage of Miss Lucy Jackson, accomplished daughter of A. T. Jackson, principal of the High school here, and Mr. Coleman C. Gore, a young attorney of this place, was quietly and beautifully solemnized in the parlors of the Tardy hotel Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock, in the presence of a few invited friends, Rev. K. A. Early, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

The groom is a brother of attorney H. Grady Gore, and is a graduate of the law department of the Cumberland University.

The Sentinel joins their friends in wishing them much happiness.

Jackson County Boy Enjoys Army Life.

Camp Jackson,
Columbia, S. C.
March 21, 1921.

Dear Editor:

I receive the Sentinel weekly and enjoy reading all the news in it. The Hensley Creek news is specially interesting, as I was raised on that creek. I would like very much to see all my old friends, but do not know when that time will come again.

Since joining the army the last time my mother and step-father, Bob Lanter have moved to Scottsville, Ky., where they are enjoying good health. They like their new location and the people just fine.

The army is sure a fine place now. We are fed good food and we fare much better than during the war. Of course this being peace time is the cause of the difference.

The weather is as hot here now as it general is in July at home, but we do not mind it.

As it is about time for "chow" I will close by wishing all good luck and health. May God bless you all.

Wm. Cooper.

P. S.—If any one will drop me a postal card or letter I will greatly appreciate it, and answer at once. My address is Corporal William Cooper, 61st Inf., Supply Co., Camp Jackson, S. C.

Former Jackson County Boy Enjoys Jackrabbit Hunting.

Wichita, Kansas,
March 21, 1921.

Editor of Sentinel:

I take pleasure in writing a short letter for publication to my friends and relatives in Jackson county, though there are but I guess who remember me, as I was only a small boy ten years old when I left there, and we have been out here five years.

Our home is near Wichita and my father is a cowpuncher. We go on coyote chases and jackrabbit hunts for sport. A friend and I went on a jack-rabbit hunt the other day and shot 40 rabbits.

I have a friend in Potwin, Kansas, who sends all the Sentinels to us, and we surely do enjoy reading them. The Dudney Hill news is especially interesting, as my father and mother used to live there. My father went to school with Bro. Hirm Way and any news of him is always interesting to us.

Slicker Snake come on with your Yuby Dam yarns. They sure are comical.

My dad is calling me, and every boy knows what that means so I must hasten away.

Hoping this escapes the waste basket, I am.

A Little Cowpuncher.

(Note—My dear little cowpuncher, the editor takes pleasure in publishing your letter and hopes you will write often, but the next time you write don't fail to sign your name. We will forgive this time if you will send us the largest pair of jackrabbit ears you can secure from a rabbit killed by yourself. Now get busy and kill the rabbit, as we will expect the ears by April 15.)

JACKSON COUNTY SCOTTISH RITE CLUB ENJOY AN- NUAL BANQUET.

The Jackson County Scottish Rite Club gave their annual Banquet Sunday afternoon from 1:00 to 3:30 p. m., in the Masonic Hall here.

The wives and friends of the members of the Club prepared the dinner, which was served at 1:00 p. m. The crowd grew very restless while those who spread the table were busy finding room on the tables for the luxurious viands, but when the signal for "cats" was sounded, it was an indisputable fact that there were none present whose senses of hearing, smelling and tasting were affected in the least, therefore a second call to arms would have been an insult to the appetite. Appropriate thanks were offered by Frank Gailbreath.

The tables, groaning beneath their inextinguishable load of luxuries, were made the more attractive, if possible, by a profusion of ferns and carnations, and by the clean and neat appearance of the Hall, which has been newly papered and painted.

Those present were Dr. C. E. Reeves and wife, Dr. R. C. Gaw and wife, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Quarles Sr., Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Gist, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gailbreath, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Haile, Mr. and Mrs. Jas Draper, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCawley, Harry L. Page and Miss Lillie Brown, Gist, Dr. J. Bayles Anderson and Miss Blanch Darwin.

Having temporarily checked the hunger of the crowd, Dr. C. E. Reeves, Master of Ceremonies, called upon some of the members for toasts, and intermingled with the rapidly vanishing luxuries were interspersed outbursts of oratory that would have made Demosthenes, Plato and Aristotle withdraw in humble humility. Short and appropriate talks were made by Drs. Reeves and Gaw, Quarles, Butler, Gist, Gailbreath and Page.

After 3:30 all had eaten to their hearts content and had exchanged jokes which accelerated needed digestion, owing to the infringement upon the digestive process, the crowd spent the remainder of the afternoon motoring.—Contributed.
